Prelude

Now Pray We to the Holy Spirit

Dietrich Buxtehude

Welcome

Opening Acclamation & Collect

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen. (†)

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Let us pray. O God, who on this day taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lesson

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

The Holy Gospel

John 7:37-39

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water.'" Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Prayers of the People

Red Door Ministry

Deacon Holy and Gracious God, who brought all things into being, we thank you for your creation and all the blessings of this life, saying: For all your gifts
People We thank you God.

In communion with all your saints, we thank you for the gift of the Church, its ministers, and all who are drawn together by your love. For all your gifts
We thank you God.

One with all your people of every tribe and language and people and nation, we thank you for all leaders everywhere who work for justice and peace. For all your gifts

We thank you God.

We thank you for your special love for the poor and any who are suffering as a result of illness or accident, human violence or natural disaster, and for all who minister to them. For all your gifts
We thank you God.

We thank you for the love which binds us in family and community, for the sick, frail, the dying, and the marginalized, and the spirit among us that welcomes and cares for them. And we pray especially for Renee Beaudoin; Richard Searles and his children Denise and Gene; Jim Grabski; that they may know your comfort and peace. For all your gifts

We thank you God.

We thank you for the lives of those who have died, especially Martha Kulp (grandmother of Deb Miller); (people may add their own petitions) and for the love that remains to comfort those who mourn. For all your gifts

We thank you God.

We give thanks for those celebrating birthdays, especially Bev Curtis; Steve Dieterich; Chisom Agum; Howard Leavenworth; Cynthia Van Ortwick; and anniversaries (people may add their own petitions). For all your gifts

We thank you God.

You may offer your own prayers and thanksgivings, silently or aloud.

God of abundance, accept our gratitude for all that you have given and all that you promise. In your mercy bless those for whom we pray and make us a community of blessing for the world, through Jesus Christ who came among us that we might live in the fullness of your love. Amen.

Anthem	Every Time I Feel the Spirit	Spiritual, arr. James Denman
	All Saints' Virtual Choir
	Ev'ry time I feel the spirit, moving in my heart, I will pray.
	Upon the mountain my Lord spoke, out of his mouth came fire and smoke. All around me looked so fine, asked my Lord if all was mine.
	Jordan river chilly and cold, chills the body but not the soul. There ain't but one train runs this track, runs to heaven and runs right back.
