Prelude on "Materna"

Edmund B. Wright

All stand as the clergy and ministers enter.

Welcome & Introduction

Opening Sentence

Officiant Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. (†)

Confession

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouths shall proclaim your praise.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

2 Kings 5:1-14

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favor with his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. And the king of Aram said, "Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel."

He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy." When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."

But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean." But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean?'" So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Tenor and Bass Voices

Thy love divine hath led us in the past;
in this free land with thee our lot is cast;
be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
thy Word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

Soprano and Alto Voices

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
be thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
thy true religion in our hearts increase;
thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

All Voices, the choir in harmony

Refresh thy people on their toilsome way;
lead us from night to never-ending day;
fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
and glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Prayers

Officiant Show us your mercy, O Lord;

People And grant us your salvation.

Clothe your ministers with righteousness;

Let your people sing with joy.

Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;

For only in you can we live in safety.

Lord, keep this nation under your care;

And guide us in the way of justice and truth.

Let your way be known upon earth;

Your saving health among all nations.

Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;

Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.

Create in us clean hearts, O God;

And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.

Prayers of Concern: Chuck & Susanne Bateman; Ron & Shirley Jones; Daniel Noland; Richard Morris; Kari Stanley (friend of the Pantry).

Prayers for a Birthday: Chuck Ford; Carol Cannon; Katherine Zimmerman; Sophia Pitner; Lucy Witmer; Craig Heverly; Geri Dash.

Prayers for an Anniversary: Amanda & Christopher Cintron.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Officiant Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication unto thee; and hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

What's Happening at All Saints

From Space Use Committee: As we are reopening to outside building users, here are a few guidelines to help us respect each other's spaces and keep from double-booking areas.

1. Any time you will be using the Guild Room, Kitchen, Parish Hall or other space for an event, luncheon, or meeting, please make sure that you schedule with Cris in the office so that it appears on the calendar.
2. The Kitchen is leased every Monday through Friday from 8am to 2pm. Zicra has welcomed us to make coffee or get hot water for tea, but she is conducting a business from the kitchen and has sole use of that space during that time. Please be considerate of her space by congregating in the Parish Hall instead of in the kitchen while she is working.
3. Lastly, always make sure to sign the white board (by the alarm) when you are in the building. And please sign out when you leave so we know who is in the building and if we are free to set the alarm. No one wants to be in the building when the alarm goes off!

From Building & Grounds: If you have extra gardening tools, how about donating them to All Saints for use at our twice-yearly church clean-ups? We need hedge clippers, hand clippers, shovels, rakes, edgers, and gardening gloves. Thank you!

Join us in discovering Julia Cameron's The Artist's Way: A Spiritual Path to Higher Creativity. For about six weeks or so, we'll read different chapters then meet up either on Zoom or during coffee hour after the 10:15 service and talk about what inspired us and what we took away from the reading and creative prompts. Please join us in this fun, artistic and spiritual journey! Just email Paige Lehmann (wonderfuliswonderful@gmail.com) if you're interested or sign up by following the QR code on the fliers posted in the church.

Canva Tutorial: Learn how to make fliers, social media posts, and digital art really shine with Canva! On Friday, July 1, Paige Lehmann will be teaching a quick Intro to Canva class to help your fliers really pop! Canva is a free online application that's fun to use, extremely easy, and will really take your projects to the next level. If you ever have to make a flier, post on Facebook, or create something nice that folks like to look at, then Canva is your friend! The class will be from 6-8, July 1st, in the Parish Hall. Join us!
